BIOGRAPHIES

Barb A'Hern (Conjur Woman) – has sung with the Anoka Opera Ensemble in La Traviata, The Merry Widow, La Boheme, Die Fliedermaus and The Mikado. She played Alma Hix in The Music Man with Morris Park Players and was featured as Mrs. Higgins in My Fair Lady with Masquers in Forest Lake. She recently played the part of Mam in ARCC winter play - And A Nightingale Sang. She enjoys gardening (flowers and vegetables), animals (a few cows and pigs) and art (painting, pottery and sculpture). She and her husband Patrick are the proud parents of Mike (25), Tricia (23) and Bob (20).

Sherry Booth Aadland (Barbara Allen) – is a former AR student who couldn't stay away from the theatre where she made her debut in School for Scandal and The Crucible. She is currently a senior at Hamline University and plans to pursue a law degree. The stars in Sherry's life are her husband and eternal best friend Joe and her two shining daughters, Jessica and Brianna.

Jennifer Anderson (Light Witch) – is a freshman at AR. She plans on seeking a career in the performing arts. Her past experience includes Rowena in Once Upon A Mattress and the chorus of The King and I and Brigadoon at St. Francis Community Theatre and Gloria Rasputin in Bye, Bye, Birdie at St. Francis High School.

Beverly Appel (Mrs. Bergen) – is known as Bev, Lee and many other names. She has appeared in productions of The Hobbit, Snoopy, Mrs. Wiggs Of The Cabbage Patch, Bye, Bye, Birdie and Inherit The Wind. Her interests include acting, writing and entertaining the cast with her favorite line – “You are my sun, my moon, my starlight sky! Without you I dwell in darkness!”

Rafael Barreiro (Mr. Allen) – is an international student from Uruguay (South America) at ARCC and Cambridge Community College. He performed in the musical Annie as Drake at the East Central Community Theatre in Braham, MN. He is planning to go on studying music theatre and children's theatre and put on shows and tours to promote world peace and understanding.

Barry Cole (Uncle Smelicue) – is a music/theatre major at ARCC. He has appeared in many productions including The Miss Firecracker Contest, The Fantasticks, and School For Scandal. He is also the lead singer/drummer for the rock group “Illusion.” After a long and glorious five year career at ARCC, Mr. Cole will be bidding adieu after this quarter. Barry would like to dedicate this farewell performance to his fiance Marie.
